The Tech

VOL. XXIV. No. 55. BOSTON, MASS., MONDAY, MARCH 6, 1905. PRICE THREE CENTS.

HUNTINGTON HALL FRIEZE.

Seniors Have Voted to Restore Three Panels.

The Senior Class, at their dinner last Thursday evening, voted to raise money to restore part of the old Frieze that formely adorned Huntington Hall, and to present it on Class Day. About two hundred and seventy dollars was subscribed in a very few minutes, so the restoration of the Frieze is assured. A committee of the class has been appointed to secure more subscriptions, and it is expected that three panels will be restored; the one directly over the platform, from which the present Tech seal is derived, and one larger panel on either side. For this purpose about four hundred dollars will be needed. The unveiling of the panels will be the feature of the Class Day exercises this year, as the presentation to President Pritchett of a loving cup was last year.

Civil Engineering Society.

There will be a meeting of the Civil Engineering Society, Thursday, March 9, at 4.15 P.M., in Room 11, Eng. B.

Mr. Kimball, who is the Chief Engineer for the Boston Elevated Railroad, will give an illustrated lecture on "Some Engineering Features of the Boston Elevated R. R. System." This meeting should be especially interesting to the third year men, and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

Handicap Series.

The first event in the Handicap series, to be held at the Gym, will be the high jump (6-inch limit). This will come off Tuesday, March 7, at 4.30 P.M. As yet the entry list is very small, and if the series is to be a success more men must enter each event. The entries thus far are: E. P. Noyes, 07; W. E. Barcus, '08, R. D. Farrington, '05; H. P. Farrington, '07; H. A. Rapelye, '08; J.J. Thomas, '07; C.F. Breitzke, '06; J. H. Polhemus, '06; and W. H. Trask, '06.

All candidates for the Freshman Basket Ball team meet at the Gym, Monday, March 6, at 4 A.M.

TECH SHOW PRIZES.

Competition Open for Designs for the Poster and Score Cover.

Two prizes of five dollars each are offered by the Tech Show management, for the best drawings for a poster and a cover design for the Show score. In past years both the poster and cover have been drawn by outsiders, because it was not possible to have suitable drawings made by Tech men. But this year it is hoped that both may be the work of Tech students. Both the poster and the score cover should be designs suggestive of the Show.

The competition will be open for two weeks, and all who have any talent, are urged to submit drawings. All who desire further particulars, should see or write to P. E. Hinkley, as soon as possible. Drawings are to be left at the Cage for the General Manager of the Tech Show, on or before March 20. The right is reserved to reject any or all of the drawings submitted.

Tech 26, Tufts 18.

The Tech Basket Ball Team defeated the Tufts Basket Ball Team at Medford, Friday, March 3. The score, 26 — 18, hardly shows the standing of the two teams, as Tech played much the better game. Their shooting was very accurate and it was only in the last few minutes of play that Tufts was able to do any scoring. At the end of the first half the score stood, Tech 16, Tufts 0. In the first part of the second half Tech kept up her good work and scored ten more points. Just at the end of this period Tufts took a great brace and scored several times.

The line up:

Blake, l.f.	Wilson, l.f.
Frederick, r.f.	Goggin, r.f.
Wentworth, c.	Getchell, c.
Burleigh, l.b.	Means, l.b.
Wiggin, r.b.	Seede, r.b.

SCORE: Tech 26, Tufts 16. Goals from floor by: Frederick, 4, Blake 3, Wiggin, 3, Wentworth 2, Burleigh, Wilson, 3, Getchell 2, Goggin, Means. Goals on fouls, Goggin 2. Referee, Goggin. Umpire, Stroud. Time, twenty minute halves.

TECHNOLOGY WINS FENCING.

Technology First, Cornell Second, and Harvard Third.

Technology defeated Cornell and Harvard in the Fencing Meet at the Gym, Friday evening, winning thirteen out of a possible eighteen bouts. Cornell finished second, with eleven bouts to her credit, and Harvard last with three bouts.

The contest between Cornell and Technology was close and exciting. When Henry of Technology and Heckheimer of Cornell stepped forward for the last bout, the score stood, Technology 12, Cornell 11. The excitement was increased when the judges called for an extra two-minute bout. Henry won by clever fencing and good headwork.

Jorge Lage easily won all of his six bouts. The Harvard team appeared to be out of condition, and was further handicapped by the absence of Tyng.

Summary:

		WON	LOST
1.	Lage, Tech	6	0
2.	Henry, Tech	5	1
3.	Delcasse, Cornell	4	2
4.	Pino, Cornell	4	2
5.	Earle, Harvard	3	3
6.	Heckheimer, Cornell	3	3
7.	Gatewood, Tech	2	4
8.	Hirsch, Harvard	0	6
9.	MacLeod, Harvard	0	6

WILLIAM A. NICHOLS, PRINTER, 208 SUMMER ST., REAR

A meeting of those interested in play-going was held Friday afternoon in 11 Rogers. There was an informal discussion of present-day plays, and a short talk by Mr. H. L. Seaver upon the English playwright, Henry Arthur Jones, author of a play now running in Boston, "Rebellious Susan." Mr. Seaver gave a short criticism of the play, praising it for its pleasing yet lasting humor.

It was agreed by those present that while no organization was at present advisable, a bulletin of current theatrical events should be kept. This will be always open for inspection in 12 Rogers, and it is hoped that not only will men use it for their own guidance, but that they will write down there comments of their own upon the plays.

All men who have not yet paid their tuition fee for the second term, have received notice from Mr. Rand that it must be paid by Friday, March 10. Men failing to do so will be excluded from Institute exercises until payment is made. The catalogue says specifically that the tuition fee must be paid in advance before February 20. The statement that no bills are sent in advance for the first term is misleading, as no bills are sent for either term. No doubt much of the delay in payment of tuition is due largely to carelessness on the part of the students, but it seems that the same care should be exercised in the discharge of financial duties to the Institute as to those affecting studies.

Drawing Instruments Stolen.

Adolph W. J. Huebner, 26 years of age, recently employed as janitor in Eng. C. and later in Walker Building, was arrested last Friday on a charge of larceny. During the two weeks in which Huebner has been employed at the Institute about $350 worth of drawing instruments have been stolen. The instruments have been recovered.

Seniors will please arrange with C. W. Hearn, 394 Boylston, for sittings before March 18.

Hollis St. Theatre.

Lillian Russell has only one more week here in "Lady Teazle," which has given her a glorious medium in which to return to the position in the comic opera stage, in which she has no rival. She looks lovelier than ever as the heroine of the delightful lyric work based on "The School for Scandal," and her peerless voice is heard to the greatest advantage.

Colonial Theatre.

Eleanor Robson will be a most welcome visitor to the local stage, for much has been heard of "Merely Mary Anne," which is universally considered to be the strongest play yet written by Israel Zangwill. It is an exceedingly vivid picture of London life, with a quaint but interesting "slavey" as the heroine. This is the first opportunity that Boston will have of seeing the play and the splendid company.

Majestic Theatre.

The ever-popular musical cocktail, "Piff, Paff, Pouf," will be seen at the Majestic Theatre for a return engagement of two weeks, commencing to-night. Alice Fisher, who made her last success in "Mrs. Jack," is a star of no common ability, and she is at her best in this, her first invasion into the field of musical comedy. She is ably supported by a score of popular artists, including the famous English Pony Ballet.

Park Theatre.

Celilia Loftus as the "Serio-Comic Governess" has added another to her long list of successes in Boston. The leading character gives her a double opportunity, for at one time she is a modest, demure governess, and the next a popular artist from the Music Halls. This is just the chance for Miss Loftus, and she gives some of the world-famous imitations of noted actors which introduced her to the American public.

Tremont Theatre.

Mr. E. S. Willard, the distinguished English actor, will present no less than four plays during his second and last week, the program being as follows: Monday and Tuesday evenings and Wednesday matinee, "The Middleman;" Wednesday evening, "David Garrick"; Thursday and Friday evenings and Saturday matinee, "The Professor's Love Story;" Saturday evening, "Tom Pinch."

COLLEGE NOTES.

Cornell is to send her varsity crew to race with Harvard on May 27, in the Charles River basin. It was first reported that the race was to be between the Junior crews of the two universities. These Junior regattas have been held every year since 1887 on Cayuga lake, and Cornell has been victorious in all. Harvard has a good chance of winning this year, however, as six of last years varsity eight are back, while Cornell has only two of last years' crew.

Pennsylvania is to adopt a new football coaching system this fall. It will consist of an advisory board, consisting of five men, and a board of coaches, consisting of a field coach, an assistant field coach, and six individual coaches.
